U. S. VICTORIES IN PACIFIC ARE MOUNTING

NAVAL FORCE IS UNOPPOSED BY JAPANESE

American Warships Run String of Enemy Destroyed Planes to 232 Within a Week

COASTAL SHIPS SUNK

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor
A mighty American naval force, roaming the south Pacific seas unchallenged by the Japanese navy, has run a string of air victories to 32 enemy planes destroyed in little more than a week by mashing Japan's stronghold at the Carolines, Truk atoll, with one of the heaviest blows of the Pacific war.

An 800-ton blast by carrier-based planes wrecked Truk's defenses and destroyed 60 parked planes. Sixty-six more Japanese aircraft were shot down during the raids Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

On the preceding weekend, the same task force supported Sixth Army invasion forces at Hollandia, Dutch New Guinea, and accounted for 106 Japanese planes. Truk's satellite bases at Satae and Ponape in the eastern Carolines were bombed and big guns from battleships and cruisers added their heavyweights to the assault.

Not a warship was damaged and no losses were confined to 30 men missing, the navy said. In the southwest Pacific, Allied headquarters issued a special statement claiming the sinking of 27 Japanese coastal vessels, 17 cargo ships, 10 destroyers, 10 minesweepers and 10 sailing craft since April 1942. The statement commented that the anti-barge campaign has had effect of "paralyzing enemy efforts to supply, reinforce or evacuate the 17th and 18th (Japanese) armies cut off and surrounded in New Guinea, New Britain, New Ireland and the Solomons."

MacArthur's communique today told of the destruction of 20 enemy barges off the New Guinea coast, and of air raids on Rabaul, New Britain, Woleai in the Caroline Islands, and the Schouten Islands in Dutch New Guinea.

On the Burma-India front, an allied communique reported capture of several Japanese positions north of Kohima, advance point of pan's invasion of India, the Allied evacuation of a village on the rakan front of coastal Burma and the steady advance of Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's forces in the gaung valley of northern Burma.

Loyang, one of China's oldest cities and six times its capital, is retaken by Japanese columns living west along the Lunghai railroad. One column is reported as less than 35 miles from the city, following the enemy breakthrough at Hulao Pass.

FRENCHMAN EXECUTED

Algiers, May 3.—(P)—A Frenchman today executed Col. Ernest Cristofini, recently convicted of treason as commander of the chry "Phalange Africaine," organized to fight the Allied landings in North Africa. Cristofini is the fourth to die in the "urge" trials of the French Committee of National Liberation.

TEACHERS STRIKE

Pittsburgh, May 3.—(P)—Domick Grillo, member of the West township school board, said today that 55 teachers had gone on strike this morning after demanding a $200 yearly wage increase. The teachers now earn from $1,400 to $1,700 a year, he said.

Neutral Blockade Confronts Axis With Critical Decision

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Washington, May 3.—(P)—The German armament industry was set today with a critical choice of production policy involving the high command's estimate of how long the war can be continued.

As a result of Allied moves cutting off Turkish chrome and reeling Spanish wolfram, Washington experts on enemy industrial sources say the German industry must begin now to taper off its production of super-hard alloys or face the fact that in a year or so they will be virtually void of alloy metals.

If they expect to end the war in a hurry they can follow the

United Lauded for Exceptional Job In Turning Out Gasoline

The following self-explanatory commendatory message, signed by the secretary of war, under secretary of navy and petroleum administrator for war, was received by officials of the United Refining today:

"Washington, D. C.
"NL—May 2, 1944
"Rec'd—May 3, 1944
"United Refining Company:
"We wish to take the occasion of 100 Octane Week to thank you and every man in the Warren Refinery for the outstanding job you have been doing in turning out components for the manufacture of Hundred Octane Number Gasoline. Without your individual efforts and those workers in other refineries all over the country, our tremendous air offensives over Europe and in the Pacific could never have been carried out. We must urge on you, however, the vital necessity of still greater production.

"According to our information, your schedules call for output of (censored) barrels of Codimer, during the next three months. To exceed this figure if humanly possible is a challenge which we know you and your employees will make every effort to meet. Great as has been the output of this vital fuel already, our offensive blows all over the globe during the critical months to come will consume staggering quantities which we must not fail to produce. We are counting on you to deliver your share.

"Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of War.
"James V. Forrestal, Under Secretary of the Navy.
"Harold L. Ickes, Petroleum Administrator for War."

Open Meeting on Community Recreation Is Well Attended

Approximately 200 persons assembled in the high school auditorium last evening for the open meeting of the Community PTA on findings of the community recreation committee.

Mrs. S. E. Saylor, council president, was in charge of the assembly, which opened with several selections played by the second band under the direction of Harry Summers. The young people played "Activity March," "Project March," "Amethyst Overture," two waltzes by Franz Lehár and "Mutual March."

Mrs. Saylor outlined the purpose of the meeting and investigation of local conditions which have preceded it. The principal speaker was Homer Fleming, director of physical education at Beatty building, whose topic was "What Is a Recreational Program?"

He pointed out that as a nation we are recreational illiterates, with no real background or philosophy of recreation and with little study of its principles. He gave his own interpretation of "recreation" as "the use of free time to satisfy the inherent desires of the individual for happiness" and stressed the belief that proper recreation (Turn to Page Nine)

Sees Little Need Of Inducting Dads

Washington, May 3.—(P)—Predicting that upwards of half a million men under 26 now holding occupational draft deferments will be inducted this year, Representative Costello (D-Calif.) said today Selective Service should need "few, if any, fathers over 26 this year."

Costello, chairman of a house military subcommittee on draft deferments, said 1,100,000 men under 26 are deferred because of employment on farms or in essential industry. In addition, he said, revised Selective Service figures show that on April 1 there were approximately 750,000 non-fathers in Class 1-A, available for induction.

SUICIDE PACT

Mechanicsburg, May 3.—(P)—A verdict of suicide has been issued by Cumberland County Coroner E. A. Haegele in the deaths of Charles W. Koser, 39, Shippensburg, R. D. 1, and Mrs. Mabel Rotz, 38. Haegele said the bodies were found by a farmer in a parked automobile in South Hampden township mountain road yesterday. A piece of hose was attached to the exhaust pipe of the car and the other end inserted in one window.

latter course but if they hope for prolonged fighting and a negotiated peace they will have to make every pound of alloy metal possible the airplane engines, armor plate, piercing shells, high-speed machine tools and other equipment essential to modern war.

In fact, economic warfare experts appear agreed that the belt tightening process for Germany is just beginning to pinch. In the next few weeks, possibly the next few days, it will pinch more severely, for Britain and the United States still have extra pressure to put on the neutrals trading with Germany.

ORDER MAKES MOST MEATS RATION FREE

Effective Tonight All Cuts Excepting Beef Steaks and Roasts May Be Had Without Coupons

EXTENDS RED POINTS

Washington, May 3.—(AP)—The Office of Price Administration today made all meats except beef steaks and beef roasts ration free, effective at midnight.

The removal of the ration points, announced by OPA Administrator Bowles at a surprise press conference, covers all cuts of pork, veal, lamb and mutton; all beef except the steaks and roasts; beef hamburger, beef steaks, all kinds of variety meats, sausage, ready-to-eat meats, canned meats and canned fish.

The action was taken, Bowles said, because lend-lease pork buying is halted for the time being; also because of reduced army and navy demand, the crowding of storage space and the hope that the action will bring more meat to market this summer.

Because of the wide variety of meats now becoming available without the spending of Red ration points, OPA announced that housewives would have to make their red points last twice as long stretching over a four week period instead of the present two week period.

In the past OPA has validated 30 red points every two weeks. Starting next Sunday OPA will validate 30 points every four weeks. Red stamps $8.88 and $8 become valid Sunday for the purchase of butter, margarine, cheese and cheese products, evaporated milk, beef steaks and roasts—the only items now requiring red points—but no more red stamps will be validated until June 3, four weeks hence.

OPA officials indicated they were fairly certain the new stamps would endure for three or four months at least, but Bowles declined to prophesy beyond that time, stating that the cattle feed situation was the governing factor. A bad growing year, he indicated, would mean restoration of rationing next winter.

Point values for beef steaks (except flank, mode point free) and roasts will remain the same, ranging from 7 to 13 points a pound.

The sudden action removes from rationing 57 per cent of the volume of products originally covered by red points. It removed 85 per cent of all meat.

WAGNER PLANNING TO CHALLENGE CITATION

Harrisburg, May 3.—(P)—A move was under way today to challenge in U. S. courts the authority of the U. S. Civil Service Commission to cite State Treasurer G. Harold Wagner and eight other officials and employees of the Democratic treasury department with violations of the anti-politics Hatch act.

The citations, disclosed in Washington, accused Wagner, who won the Democratic nomination for auditor general a week ago, and the other officials of violating the federal law which prohibits use of official authority in political activity of federal or state agencies supported in whole or in part by federal funds.

PROTESTANT CHURCHES PROTEST DRAFT LAW

Harrisburg, May 3.—(P)—A protest against what the Pennsylvania Council of Churches termed "unjust and unwieldy discrimination" against candidates for the protestant ministry went to Selective Service in Washington today.

The council adopted the protest in a resolution at the conclusion of its 15th annual state convention here yesterday and asserted it represented 24 protestant denominations with a membership of 2,200,000 in Pennsylvania.

BOUDREAU REPORTS

Chicago, May 3.—(P)—Lou Boudreau, youthful shortstop and manager of the Cleveland Indians, reported for his pre-induction physical examination today at the Armed Forces examination and induction station in Chicago. Boudreau, 26, married and the father of two children, has been in I-A for several weeks.

Governor Discusses Chapman's Resolution

Harrisburg, May 3.—(P)—A pending resolution proposing a legislative commission to study problems relating to care of persons afflicted with cancer and the possibility of establishing a hospital for them "might have something worthwhile," Governor Martin declared today.

"I'm very much for anything where Pennsylvania can aid in the campaign against cancer but I haven't studied the resolution," said the executive at his press conference.

Senator Leroy E. Chapman (R-Warrenton) offered the senate resolution which was referred to committee.

Nazis Report Activities On Italian Front

London, May 3.—(P)—New Allied offensive operations in the Mediterranean in conjunction with the anticipated invasion of western Europe were forecast today by the Germans, who were reported reinforcing their defenses on the Dalmatian coast to meet a possible thrust into the Balkans.

In a broadcast from Berlin, a German military commentator declared that large movements of Allied troops and supplies observed in Southern Italy "indicate the two armies (Fifth and Eighth) intend to launch a fresh attack."

The Germans intimated they expected this attack to coincide with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's invasion assault from the west and a renewal of the Russian drive from the east.

Gen. Veledit, a member of the military mission sent to London by Marshall Josip (Tito) of the Yugoslav partisans, said the Germans in his homeland "are frightened of an Allied invasion from Italy and have diverted four of their 14 divisions in Yugoslavia to guard the Dalmatian coast line."

CATTLE THEFT ACT IS INVOKED AT PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, May 3.—(P)—The recently enacted national cattle theft act was invoked here for the first time yesterday when a federal grand jury indicted two men on charges of transporting stolen animals in interstate commerce.

Named in the true bill were Philip Ross Hill and Calvin James Hill, brothers, of Warren, O. FBI agents charged in a complaint the men stole a heifer and a bull calf from a farm near Kittanning and drove them in an automobile across the state line to Warren.

TWO IN U. S. BOMBER CREW ARE GROUNDED

U. S. Bomber Base in Britain, May 3.—(P)—Two crewmen of an American bomber who were reported to have talked too much before the last attack on Berlin have been grounded and probably will be court-martialed.

Their names were withheld. It was reported that shortly before the takeoff time, they were overheard to mention in a place where the conversation might be heard by the wrong people that Berlin was the target.

Mississippi River Slowly Receding

By the Associated Press
Flood waters of the swollen Mississippi river were receding today as far south as Cape Girardeau, Mo., but elsewhere in the mid-west and southwest the threat of high water was mounting.

In central and eastern Texas, the toll had risen to eight dead, 33 injured and one missing following torrential rains, hail and heavy winds. The Neches river in east Texas was three miles wide in some places.

Government forecasters warned that serious flood conditions also existed along the Trinity, Brazos and Sabine rivers and numerous minor streams in Texas. Heavy livestock loss was expected.

In western Missouri the Osage river swirled out of its banks after further rains Monday night. For 300 miles from the Kansas border to the river's confluence with the Missouri, the danger was serious.

Rigid Quarantine Of Dogs in Boro Ordered by Police

Reports were received last night from Harrisburg laboratory where the head of a dog shot by its owner, Malcolm O'Neil, 23 Glade avenue, some time ago was sent. The report stated that the reactions on the head showed that the dog definitely was suffering from rabies. Inasmuch as the animal is reputed to have bitten several other dogs in the vicinity where it ran wild, police are acting to check any outbreak of the disease in this city. Two other dogs, one owned by F. M. Kuhre, of Connecticut avenue, the other owned by Clarence Johnson, of Venturatown, were shot this week and the heads have also been sent away for determination as to whether or not they had rabies.

Chief of Police George Haehn has taken steps to check any outbreak and a strict quarantine has been placed on all dogs in the city. Orders have been issued to all police officers to pick up all dogs found running at large. Under the order, every dog must be tied up and kept off the streets. If any dog is picked up on the streets and its owner does not have a certificate to show that the animal has been inoculated against rabies, the dog will be disposed of. This applies to licensed as well as unlicensed dogs.

Doctor Sperry Kinton is cooperating with the police in every way and is prepared to inoculate any and all dogs against the disease. He sent the head of the infected dog to Harrisburg where it was found that the head was so badly decomposed that a serum had to be made from the brain and injected into other animals to secure the reaction to show if the animal shot had been suffering from rabies.

RABIES ACTION BY BOROUGH COUNCIL

At the call of President F. W. Waite, a special meeting of borough council will be held in the council chambers of the city building at 7:30 p. m. Thursday for the purpose of taking action on adoption of an ordinance quarantining dogs and preventing spread of rabies. Additional business will be appropriation of Memorial Day expenses.

Dr. Kinton this morning emphasized that rabies is a disease that is spread only by a bite inflicted on some other animal. Reports from Spring Creek are to the effect that 18 cows there have suffered rabies and that down in Mercer county many others have been affected with the disease. Cats, too, have been spreading the disease. Dr. Kinton also called attention to the fact that a dog acting queerly should not be killed immediately but should be shut (Turn to Page Two)

Adoption Of Simplified Tax Bill Predicted

Both Republicans and Democrats in the house conceded the measure, which goes into two days of debate today, would pass overwhelmingly on Friday.

Administration Forces Win Out In Florida and Alabama

By the Associated Press

Administration forces beat back their Democratic critics in Florida and Alabama senatorial primaries while Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York gathered in more convention support today for the Republican presidential nomination.

Senator Lister Hill, Democratic whip, was renominated in Alabama and Senator Claude Pepper ran up a substantial lead in his five-way contest for renoma-

HOUSE PASSES SOLDIER VOTE UNANIMOUSLY

Series of Bills Stripping Red Tape From Military Balloting Goes to the Senate

OTHERS ARE APPROVED

By RALPH E. WALLIS
Harrisburg, May 3.—(P)—Republicans and Democrats joined hands in the house today to pass Pennsylvania's soldier vote program by a thumping, unanimous vote.

The 201 to 0 vote sent the series of bills stripping red tape from military balloting to the senate where a vote may be taken possibly on Friday.

The measures, described by Governor Martin as "a simple, direct and easily understood plan," are designed to carry the right to vote at the November election to 500,000 to 800,000 Pennsylvanians in the Armed Forces and auxiliary services scattered throughout the world.

House approval also was given to a proposed constitutional amendment to give the general election right to fix terms of office of election boards. The amendment was sponsored by the Local Government Commission of the legislature which said it was drafted after the Dauphin county court held the constitution fixed the terms at one year instead of two years as now provided by the election code.

The proposed constitutional amendment along with appropriation measures to carry the soldier vote program into effect also went to the senate, which has confined its activities so far to consideration of Governor Martin's appointments made since the 1943 regular session of the assembly adjourned.

The senate yesterday confirmed most of the appointments. GOP House Leader Franklin H. Lichtenwalter congratulated the (Turn to Page Nine)

ALLEGHENY VOTE SMALL

Pittsburgh, May 3.—(P)—Only approximately one out of every four registered electors in Allegheny county voted in last Tuesday's primary, according to Nicholas Stabile, county statistician. Ballots were cast by 172,607 of the 645,286 eligible voters.

Both men are administration stalwarts and both were opposed by vigorous critics of many of President Roosevelt's policies. In their part of the country nomination is as good as election.

Support of the president figured as a side issue in another senatorial primary, in South Dakota, where Republican Senator Charles McNary won renomination despite opposition claims that he had "adopted much of the new deal philosophy."

It was in South Dakota that Governor Dewey picked up 11 additional convention votes. A slate favoring the New Yorker defeated one supporting Lieut. Comdr. Harold E. Stassen by a margin of about 3 to 2.

This brings Dewey's total of pledged or claimed delegates to 239, with 530 needed to nominate at the Chicago convention.

AIR INVASION CRIPPLES AXIS RAIL CENTERS

No Longer Capable of Bearing Peak Load Necessary For Germans To Repel Coming Thrust

LEVERKUSEN IS RAIDED

By GLADWIN HILL
London, May 3.—(P)—Rail targets in western Europe have been bombed so effectively for the last two months that the lines in northern France and Belgium are no longer capable of bearing the peak load necessary for the Germans to repel invasion, a ministry of economic warfare spokesman said today.

American Liberators bombed the Pas de Calais area of France for the fourth consecutive day today, hammering Nazi installations blocking the shortest invasion route to the continent. The assault carried the mighty two-directional air offensive through the 19th consecutive day.

Italy-based planes struck heavily at Genoa and other harbors and at rail lines in northern and central Italy last night as Mosquitos from Britain sprayed the German chemical center of Leverkusen with two-ton bombs in a half hour attack.

The ministry spokesman said no freight yard between Cologne and the Bay of Biscay in a zone 100 miles deep was capable of forming trains, and that only military and coal traffic could be handled. He said 14-year-old boys, women and one-armed former soldiers were being used by the Germans to run the trains.

The 400-mile-an-hour Mosquitos dropped many 4,000-pound block-busters on Leverkusen, which lies just north of Cologne and is the home of one of the largest chemical works in Europe, employing 20,000 workers.

The Acheres railway yards in France were hit by Mosquitos as British heavy bombers remained idle for the first time in seven nights.

Besides Genoa, second only to Marseilles as an important Mediterranean port, the southern arm of the Allied air force also struck at Piacenza, north Italian road junction, in an extension of the widespread assaults made yesterday.

While the swift Mosquitos visited Germany for the first time this month, Allied intruders swept over the continent as far as Munich and shot down five German planes. Four of them were downed by one Canadian Mosquito crew, setting a record for this type of night operation.

An Air Ministry communique said mines also were strewn in enemy waters and that no Allied planes were missing.

Official announcements last night said American and British ship fleets based in Britain and Italy easily established a record during April by scattering a total of 80,460 tons of bombs on their chosen targets in Germany and occupied territories.

BULLETINS

Philadelphia, May 3.—(P)—Dr. Adamegud Ranzini, one of the Egyptian government's two delegates to the International Labor Conference here, was found dead today in his hotel room.

Newport News, Va., May 3.—(P)—Charges by Senator Bridges (R-NH) that some soldiers were losing a large part of their pay in army camp slot machines and that Camp Patrick Henry, Va., was "one place where the situation is extremely bad," were refuted yesterday by Brig. Gen. J. R. Kilpatrick, commanding officer of the Hampton Roads port of embarkation.

Cambridge, Mass., May 3.—(P)—A chemical method of duplicating guanine, identical in every respect to the antimalarial drug extracted from the bark of cinchona trees, has been developed after almost a century of attempts by chemists, the Polaroid Corporation announced today.

Washington, May 3.—(P)—Representative Lesinski (D-Mich.) said in a statement published today in the Congressional Record that he wondered if Catholic officials would take steps to unfrock the Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, Catholic priest whom Lesinski termed "a traitor to the church."

Phoenixville, May 3.—(P)—Doctors say they can't possibly live, but the tiny, blonde Stierly Siamese twins continued to wage a stubborn battle against death today.

Rigid Quarantine Of Dogs In Boro Ordered By Police

up and the disease given a chance to develop so that a true diagnosis can be made. There will be no more heads sent away for the present as the presence of the disease has been established. A 100 day quarantine on all dogs is recommended by Dr. Kinton.

Owen Sheridan, of North East, agent for this district of the Department of Animal Industry, arrived in the city this morning and Dr. Jones, of Mercer, also of the Department of Animal Industry, is in the city. Mr. Sheridan called on dog owners whose animals are thought to have had contact with the dog owned by Malcolm O'Neill. Of the 25 persons called upon he discovered that 23 of them did not possess dog licenses for their animals and they were arrested. Hearings will be given tomorrow morning at the police court. Quarantines were also imposed on these animals and they must be kept on their own premises as a fine of $100 can be levied for a violation. Carol Van Blois, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Van Blois of 425 Conewang avenue was severely bitten yesterday afternoon by a dog. The animal ran into the family yard where the child was playing and bit her just below the knee on one leg. The gash was a severe one and medical attention was given. Mrs. Van Blois summoned a police officer and followed the dog. When the officer arrived the animal bit him twice but did not puncture the flesh.

The situation in Warren is considered serious and until a strict quarantine is placed on all dogs for a specified period no one can tell how many dogs have been infected with the dread disease. While the Pasteur treatment is now available at the Warren General Hospital for any person bitten by an infected animal the treatment is severe and results not always certain. To that end the police are taking no chances and the law will be strictly enforced. A dog running at large should promptly be reported to the police headquarters so that it may be picked up and disposed of at once. Warren had a large number of mongrel dogs and many of them were unlicensed but the police have been quietly carrying on a campaign of extermination of these dogs and many have been disposed of during the past few weeks.

Rabies has spread in Erie county and in parts of New York state and in Pennsylvania reports compiled by the state the outbreak is shown to be the worst in many years. Not only have domestic animals suffered from the disease but reports from the vicinity of Clymer, N. Y., are to the effect that foxes are suffering from the disease and have attacked farmers and other persons. A report this week from Oil City was to the effect that a fox had bitten a woman near that place.

Cooperation of the citizenry in general and dog owners in particular is necessary to wipe out the disease and get rid of any infected animals and all possible aid must be given the police in the campaign.

Airport Is Problem For Town Council

Grass growing on the runways of the Airport is presenting a problem to the Town Council and the committee in charge is casting about for some method whereby the grass can be removed. The runways constructed of bitchallithic material is being damaged by the grass and weeds and the State Aeronautics Commission Inspector is insistent that the runways be put in better shape.

Chairman William Rice of the Town Council Airport Committee has gone into the situation with Virgil King, of the Warren Air Service and reports to Council that the grass is not growing up through the surfacing on the runways but is growing downward from the top.

When removed the grass leaves little humps on the surface of the runways that eventually will cause an uneven condition that will make their use dangerous. The State Commission is anxious that the runways be resurfaced and it has been ascertained that this would entail an expenditure of $3000. City Engineer Barvis has suggested that the street sweeper with its steel brushes be run over the surface of the runways. It is thought this would remove the grass. Suggestion was made a weed killer be applied at a cost not to exceed $500. However this would be only temporary.

It is to be hoped that the use of the street sweeper will be found successful as the funds of the Council at present would not permit the resurfacing of the runways.

OLD PIER REMOVED

The pier of the Glade bridge damaged some months ago by an ice gorge in the river is fast being replaced. The contractor in charge has removed the old pier and the weight of the bridge is being supported by steel beams that allowed the old pier to be entirely torn out. On Monday of this week the footer that will support the new pier was poured and forms are now being set for the pouring of the new concrete pier. When completed the new pier will be stronger than the old one or in fact any of the piers of the bridge. Good time is being made on the job by the contractor and all there has been a minimum of interference with traffic.

LOONS ON RIVER

For the first time in a score or more of years sportsmen report that a pair of loons are spending some time on the river. The birds have been sighted this week on Hertzels Eddy and also at Gundersville. The big birds have attracted much attention and sportsmen are asked not to shoot them in hopes that they may make their home on the local stream and multiply. Several of the observers of the birds say that loons have not been seen here in 25 years and that at one time the birds were fairly common in this section. A flock of ducks has also been sighted this week on the river near the hospital and they have been viewed with much pleasure by observers.

Ford Plant At Windsor Tied Up By Strike

Windsor, Ont., May 3—(P.)—

The giant plants of the Ford Motor Company of Canada were idle again today following a mass meeting at which members of the United Automobile Workers Union (CIO) voted last night to halt work until satisfactory settlement is reached on a dispute over grievance procedure.

The new shutdown came only three days after work had been resumed following a 10-day stoppage which resulted from a similar dispute.

Picket lines were established at the gates of the sprawling factories.

The work stoppage which began April 20 apparently had been settled last week-end on the basis of terms drawn up by the National War Labor Relations Board in conferences with union and company representatives at Ottawa.

Union officials, however, expressed dissatisfaction with the board's recommendations for grievance procedure, and the mass meeting was called.

It Happened In WARREN---48 YEARS AGO

This is the FIRST of a series of pictures of Warren 48 years ago—in 1896—when life was more leisurely, entertainment more naive, and names-in-the-news recall the happy times of an earlier generation. The following are quoted from the Warren Evening Mirror, 1896:

VIRGIL LESSER, AGE 5, FLOWER BOY.

A very pretty rose wedding took place at the home of E. J. Woodruff, "father of the bride," Wednesday evening, East Side. The contracting parties were Miss Mary L. Woodruff and O. D. Stone, both of this place. Promptly at 9 o'clock the bridal party marched down the stairs where Rev. T. R. Thoburn performed the solemn and impressive ceremony with the wedding ring under an arch of roses. The Misses Ethel Offerle and Jennie Burkett acted as Maids of Honor. Little Noyes McWilliams and Virgil Lesser, aged 5 years, cousins of the bride, carried baskets of roses.

There are fewer robins, observe those who live in the country. The cheerful chirp of the red breast is seldom heard any more, and inquiring persons have been unable to account for the decrease in numbers of this popular bird.

Two Important Writers of World Fame have passed from the ranks. Kate Field's incisive, trenchant and refined style has left its impress and won for her an enviable fame. Coarser and more vigorous were the writings of "Brick" Pomeroy, yet much of his work was of a meritorious kind.

Need of Coordinated Effort Seen In AAF Press Report

Principal figure in a delayed news release received from the field censor with the 15th Army Air Force in Italy is Capt. George "Sherry" Miller, of Warren, back in this country with more than 50 bombing missions to his credit and now attending instructors' school at Galveston, Texas.

The press dispatch, pointing out that modern warfare calls for more than just one man knowing how to do a thing, that it calls for teamwork and coordination of everyone involved, contains a fine tribute for the Warren officer and the men who were most closely associated with him while he was a member of an AAF B-17 group in Italy. It reads:

Such a team was Capt. James A. Clark, of Winchester, Ky., a staff officer; Capt. George S. Miller, 7 Franklin street, Warren, pilot and squadron leader; Capt. Philip M. Glassman, La Porte, Ind., squadron engineering officer, and Capt. Lyman E. Ihle, Cambridge, Mass., squadron flight surgeon.

It all started in Algeria, in June, 1943, shortly after they arrived overseas, where they shared the same tent. This marked the beginning of the "team."

Soon the three ground officers began to center their attention around Capt. Miller, not only because he was a combat pilot and needed all the help the ground officers could give him, but because of his admirable spirit and eagerness to fly regardless of the type of mission to be flown.

Capt. Clark remarked, "George is the kind of guy that can get up at 4:30 in the morning knowing he had a long, hard mission to fly that day. He would adjust his tie and silk scarf and say 'well I gotta wheel and deal today; and leave for his plane. Then upon his return from skies dark with flak and enemy fighters, sit down and tell you about the mission in a cool calm voice."

Capt. Clark once flew with Capt. Miller on a mission over Viterbo, Italy.

Capt. Glassman flew with Capt. Miller on many "test hops," after the squadron mechanics had worked on the plane to make double sure that everything was in shape. He also kept him posted on the latest developments in the engineering line.

Besides keeping him in good physical condition, Capt. "Doc" Ihle also flew with him to check his reactions while flying at high altitude using oxygen. His associates informed him of the most modern developments along the research line of combat flying.

Sheffield High Seniors Will Present Play

Sheffield, May 2.—Friday evening, May 5th, will be Senior Night at the high school auditorium. Several musical numbers will be given, and a play "Twelve Hours by the Clock," a comedy in two acts by Lindsey Barbee, will be staged by eight girls, Dorothy Abramson, Annabelle Snyder, Jeanne McDowell, Betty Irwin, Marilyn Jones, Barbara Sowle, Alice Jeffords and Eleanor Delman.

The action takes place in the living room in Woodlawn Cottage, on the estate of Beverly Gilbert, an actress. During an unexpected visit at the cottage, Beatrice Gilbert, sister of the actress, reveals the fact that Beverly has disappeared suddenly. Into the atmosphere of study comes Carol, a gay young cousin of Estelle; Ardis, a strange young woman who, caught in the storm, forgets her own identity, her own name; and Arabella, a country girl who refuses to leave the trio. The advent of a dashing young man in a gray and scarlet car adds mystery; the kidnapping of an heiress makes the girls wonder if their nameless stranger can be the lost Doris. The lively Carol elopes with the dashing young man to the accompaniment of motor horns, pistol shots and a visit to the police station. And then, as a climax, Arabella proves to be Beverly Gilbert, undiscovered by anyone, has played the role of a country girl and has proved that she is clever enough to submerge her own personality in that of another person. All of which happens in the period from noon to midnight—twelve hours by the clock.

Mrs. L. O. Eisenhauer and Miss Betty Loomis are coaching the play.

The Progressive Woman's Club met Monday evening, April 24th, at the Red Cross rooms, with twenty-two members present. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Miss Richwalsky. The following officers were re-elected: President, Miss Mary Richwalsky; first vice president, Mrs. Emil Stanat; second vice president, Mrs. Richard Moore; secretary, Mrs. Milton Danielson; treasurer, Miss Gertrude Calkins. The club will entertain their mothers and guests at a 6:30 dinner in the dining room of the Bethany Lutheran church, May 5th. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Richard Moore, on or before May 3rd.

Miss Gertrude Calkins spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Plank, Colon, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Priset and daughter, Mrs. Naomi Johnson, spent the weekend with the Ebert Lundin family at Bradford.

The Junior class sponsored a dance last Friday evening in the high school gymnasium, and the music was furnished by the Melody Busters.

Mrs. William Paul and daughter, Mrs. Herbert Fitch, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCasky, and returned to Endicott, N. Y., Sunday evening.

Miss Reba Merriell and Miss Hamilton of Erie were Sunday guests at the home of O. M. Beer.

Pvt. Robert Gustafson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gustafson, is now stationed at Camp Meade.

Pvt. Archie Harris, stationed at Camp Wheeler, Ga., is spending a ten-day furlough, with his wife and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruland Russ have received word that their son, Sgt. Wayne Russ, is now in New Guinea.

Pvt. Paul Johnson is now stationed at Camp Meade, according to word received by Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Ruth Howarth attended the American Legion Auxiliary Inter-County Council meeting in Bradford Saturday.

ONE LONELY DRUNK

One drunk who violated all rules by getting intoxicated on Tuesday instead of Saturday night was gathered in by the police. He was holding forth on Pennsylvania avenue east and was given a ride to the station in the police car. This little incident and the hushing of a barking dog provided the excitement outside of knob trying and money escorting.

RED CROSS NEEDS HELP

Eighteen thousand surgical dressings sounds like a lot—but when twenty-seven thousand is added to it, the total is something to boast about. If the Warren County Chapter of the American Red Cross can reach the goal of those figures combined they will have attained the quota planned for the month of May.

It is believed that the women of Warren will be on hand to do the job in spite of the flurry of spring housecleaning that is prevalent these days. It would be a feather in the cap of the local chapter if the huge task could be completed by the end of the month. The War Department is counting on you.

Of special interest to civilian war workers is the fact that the surgical dressings program is conducted, controlled and administered by the War Department, but the bulk of the production is executed by Red Cross volunteers; in short the success of each month's program depends on you.

It appears that everyone must do one more thing. Each must add to her desire to help, a determination to work cheerfully on whatever job the country has for her, and at whatever time not losing the perspective for the program as a whole.

The need for surgical dressings is greater than ever. Enroll now to assist in reaching the May quota of 18,000 plus 27,000 additional dressings required by the present emergency.

YMCA ANNIVERSARY SYMPHONY

The nature of the symphonic work which Morton Gould is composing as a tribute to youth of the World for the 100th Anniversary observance of the Young Men's Christian Association is announced in a statement by the brilliant young American composer released from National headquarters of the Y. M. C. A.

It is a "Symphony of Marching Tunes", which he describes as "exploring in symphonic form one aspect of the American idiom that has been used to a very limited extent so far."

Sketches for the symphony have been completed and arrangements are being made for its world premiere in June, when ten thousand Y. M. C. A.'s in 68 countries will be participating in their centennial celebration.

"When I was commissioned last year to write a work for the Y. M. C. A. Centennial," Mr. Gould explained, "I felt it would be consistent with the idea to do something that was related to youth. The vigor and vitality that are inherent in good marches and marching songs is something that is applicable to the idea of young people and young spirits marching forward to a better future."

Sub-committees of Warren's Y. M. C. A. Centennial Committee have been at work making plans for local observance of the anniversary. The actual birthday, (June 6th) to be known as "Second Century Day," will be celebrated here with an anniversary banquet in the Association building; while, with the cooperation of the Ministers Association, plans have been made for "Y. M. C. A. Day in the Churches" on June 4. Further details about these and other Centennial events will be announced in the coming weeks.

RABIES SITUATION SERIOUS

Disclosure that heads of dogs sent to a Harrisburg laboratory for examination revealed positive reaction to rabies creates a situation that is most menacing to the community and demands complete cooperation of every canine owner in Warren.

Both animals were killed in Warren and it is not known how many others may have been bitten. A strict quarantine has been placed on all dogs with orders issued to police to pick up any found running at large. Any animals found whose owners can not prove they have been inoculated against rabies will be disposed of, and this applies to licensed as well as unlicensed canines.

Warren is facing an epidemic of rabies. There are reports of citizens having been bitten. Any who have should consult a physician for the Pasteur treatment, which is available at the Warren General Hospital.

The ban is ironclad. If you value your pet do not permit it to run at large.

How's the housecleaning coming along?

Washington in Wartime

(This is the first of two articles on Ralph K. Davies, who as deputy petroleum administrator has taken hold of one of the most important jobs in Washington.)

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Sometimes the men who really run wartime America are the headlines. More often they don't. One who never has is Ralph K. Davies, deputy petroleum administrator for war.

He was appointed three years ago (June 9, 1941) by that frost-bitten old curmudgeon, Harold L. Ickes, to see to it that our oil, gasoline and petroleum by-products were distributed so that they would do the most good in our war efforts.

Since then, Ickes has received praise from friends and foes alike for his handling of the petroleum situation. The reason is simply that the gruff old owl has had complete confidence in and backed almost every major decision of Davies.

LIKE nature in the case of a vacuum, Davies abhors personal publicity. When he came to Washington there was hardly a line printed that he had resigned a highly lucrative position as senior vice president of the powerful Standard Oil Co. of California, to become just another salaried government toiler in the defense vineyard. His biographical sketch, issued by petroleum administration publicists, was as dry as dust, merely recounting his business background.

IT was Davies' job to see first that every Army, Navy and Merchant Marine demand for fuel was met, that no one using oil for heating in the nation suffered

YET after three years, the major portion of industry, the military, and even the public is saying "well done" to Ickes and his PAW. The Army and Navy have never wanted for fuel, within the limits of transoceanic shipping capacity (which is not Davies' job). There have been no reports of any one freezing to death and the nation's 20-odd million passenger cars and fleets of buses and freight trucks have been kept moving on essential travels.

Behind it all is Ralph K. Davies, who hasn't had a front-page headline since he came to Washington. (Tomorrow: Davies—The Man.)

HOLLYWOOD—Charles Bickford, the red-headed tough guy of many films, went along minding his own business for many years but now he's in trouble—other people's trouble.

Because the former tough guy changed type and played the Dean of Lourdes in "The Song of Bernadette," his fan mail also has changed in type. He used to get letters from young girls collecting actor photographs, routine fan letters.

Now they're coming from men and women of all ages—and they're asking advice. The strong, holy man of the movie has transferred to the actor his understanding and wisdom—at least in the fan mind—and Bickford now must play the new role of off-screen counsellor, father, friend.

"I'm doing my best," he says, "to give helpful answers. Makes me feel a responsibility—since they ask questions on spiritual, financial, love, sex and many other intimate matters."

That one role, Bickford's best performance, has affected his professional life also. A year ago he'd have been the last man in town selected to read an Easter message at a Salvation Army service. He has been dickered on a radio deal, and one of the themes suggested was Bible readings! This seems incongruous only because of his screen past, for Bickford is not without religion.

"My religion? I'm strictly a Golden Rule guy," he says.

This member of the Army's 8th Air Force and the Flying Fortress behind him are not caught in an Aleutian blizzard, but in a rain of fire-extinguishing foam, sprayed by a crash crew as the plane, aflame from flak hits over Achmer, Germany, arrived at English bomber base.

Greyhound Bus Lines Has Purchased West Ridge System

Greyhound Corporation, operators of the Greyhound Bus Lines has purchased the West Ridge Transportation Company, which effective June 1 will be known as the West Ridge Greyhound Line. The amount of money involved in the transaction is not known.

The deal involved the purchase of more than 100 buses and the West Ridge Company's stock. F. X. Bowman, owner of the West Ridge Transportation Company will be manager of the West Ridge Greyhound lines. It is also said that the same personnel will be retained in the district terminals.

The company policy and bus schedules will remain the same as under the West Ridge Transportation Company, one spokesman said.

The West Ridge Greyhound Line will have a co-director on the Greyhound Corp. board of directors which will operate the line.

Negotiations have been under way for several months by the Greyhound Corp. for the purchase of the West Ridge Transportation Company which came into existence shortly after the Buffalo and Erie Traction trolley service was abolished more than 15 years ago.

The main terminals of the West Ridge company are in Erie, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Meadville, Jamestown, Sharon and Warren. The company also maintains commiss-

REPORT ISSUED

The OPA weekly fuel index, released May 1 by the Erie District office, shows that as of that date consumers in this locality should not have burned more than 93 per cent of their total yearly fuel allotment. Plans are now being completed to have local war prices and rationing boards to begin sending out early in June the renewal applications for next season's rations. If these are sent back to boards promptly by consumers, the panels will start issuing actual coupon sheets in July, enabling oil users to fill up their tanks during the summer and early fall months when transportation facilities are more available.

Women Must Respond To Call For Help

Every woman who is not now engaged in essential war work is urged to ask herself this question, "Where will I be on invasion day when our men are dying by the hundreds, and thousands are being wounded?" There is only one answer to be made to that question for every true hearted American woman and the answer is "I am in a war plant working my hardest to give aid and support to the men in the front lines."

Never was there such an opportunity for women to lend their strength and skill in the aid of the men in armed forces. Never was there a time when women's work counted so much. Today Warren has need of over 250 women in its plants and the response is not what it should be. There should be an outpouring of women from every town in the county into Warren plants and the office of the Manpower Commission should be besieged with applicants for places.

Reports are current that girls and women are loath to get into industry as they might get dirty hands and would not wear the clothing they would wear in an office. That idea should be tossed out the window as the men—brothers, husbands, sweethearts—in the dirty, foul slit trenches are not immaculate and the stay-at-homes could stand a little dirt and grime.

Manager David Levine is preparing to enroll women in every town in the county during the next few days and women in the outlying districts should be prepared to enroll when the call comes. The time and place for enrollment will be announced soon. The Sylvania Company is arranging for transportation if sufficient numbers of girls and women enroll to make their transportation feasible.

Why not call at 225 Pennsylvania avenue today and secure an application card for an essential job?

CARPENTERS ARE NEEDED
Work on the new addition to the plant of the Sylvania Electric Products Inc., is being slowed down by the inability to secure carpenters for the job. The construction firm is working nine hours per day and paying $1.25 per hour. There is immediate need for ten men and more could be used. Men engaged in non essential work can be used at once.

CEILING IS SET
The Erie OPA announces ceiling prices on fresh strawberries, effective May 2, are 31 cents for pints and 56 cents for quarts of shipped in berries. These prices, it is forecast, will be much lower as the berries become more plentiful and in instances where transportation and protective charges are saved through growth in nearby states. Locally grown berries, R. G. Cramer announces, will be about the same as last year.

NO CERTIFICATE NEEDED
Earl J. Donor, district manager of the Office of Defense Transportation, says: Certificates of War Necessity are not required for the operation of commercial motor vehicles by dealers or repair establishments in the course of their rebuilding or reconditioning, under an amendment issued today by the Office of Defense Transportation. The amendment exemption order 21-2A, Amendment 1, effective immediately, also applies to such vehicles when being operated to, from or between rebuilding plants. Arrangements have been made with the Office of Price Administration for the issuance of special gasoline ration for this purpose, ODT officials said. Such ration will be limited to 200 miles of travel, however, unless the ODT certifies that adequate rail or water facilities are not available to transport the vehicle the necessary distance.

(By Joe Gardner)

From Sgt. Robert E. Field
Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1944.

Dear Joe:

Your recent article regarding the hectic Conewango Cubs-Nine Terrors baseball feud of some years ago brought back some fond recollections.

In due justice to Steve Massa, if my memory serves me correctly, the Nine Terrors did win one game of the mythical junior championship. The game was played on a Sunday afternoon at the old Fair Grounds diamond as a preliminary to one of Bobby Burns' main events. The game was arranged to go seven innings and the starting time was set sufficiently ahead to allow completion of this number. The members of both teams appeared on the field at the appointed time (the Conewango Cubs' line-up was uncertain up to the last minute, due to some of the parents' opposition to playing on Sunday) and what looked as a red-hot game was ready to go. However, the manager of the Nine Terrors was unwilling to allow the first ball to be pitched until every eventuality had been taken care of. Arguments arose thick and fast. The most important concerned which team would bat first. This was really important, since either team might score an unlimited number of runs in any one inning, thus consuming so much time that the team in the field might not get its last turn at bat. The argument evolved about who had batted first in the last championship game (practically every game played was for the championship) and, after many minutes of haggling, this was settled by tossing a coin. The Cubs won the toss the first time and then the Terrors' management insisted the toss should be two out of three. Again the Cubs won and the Terrors had to give in to this bit of fate, although some reference was made to a two-headed coin being used by the Cubs.

No less importance was attached to the choice of umpires. The Terrors were well prepared in this respect having brought along their own. The Cubs had had considerable experience in similar situations, much to their sorrow, and in turn were unwilling to proceed under such conditions. The argument arose as to whose home game it was and once more complications set in. Many more minutes slipped by before this question was settled by selecting impartial arbiters. An umpire in any of these games not only had to withstand veritable crucifixion in case the Nine Terrors were on the adverse end of a close decision, but he probably would find himself castigated in print in the next issue of the Times-Mirror by the protesting Terrors' management.

These two vital questions agreed to, the problem of ground rules next arose. Even for kids, the Fair Grounds lay-out was perplexing. Before being brought to an amicable conclusion, many more minutes were wasted. Finally, with the starting time now considerably delayed, the game got under way, but since so much time had been lost in argument, only two or three innings were got in before it was necessary to end the activities so that the main event could get started.

As I recall, the Terrors were a run or two ahead when the game was called and, although it had not reached the regulation number of innings, the Terrors considered it a victory and tagged on a couple of scoreless innings to make it legal. The Cubs were quite peeved about the whole business, since they felt they had not reached their second wind in this particular game, and in the final tussle of the season, played at a later date, they revengefully massacred the Terrors.

If all the circumstances as related above are not in line (my memory may be somewhat faulty in one or two minor respects), I'm sure Steve can set you straight!

Best regards,
BOB FIELD

St. Jos. Boys' Club Makes Its Spring Debut

The St. Joseph Boys' Club made its debut of the season on the West End diamond when it trimmed the Wildcats. This was the first scored ball game of the season in the city. Weidert pitched a nice game for the Boys' Club but lacked support in the field and the Wildcats clawed their way around the bases and were out in front most of the way. Then, in the last few innings, the Boys' Club players found themselves and after that there was nothing to it. In the last of the ninth Tom Juliano got a pass via an error, Chuck Adams promptly walloped out a triple and brought Juliano home.

Wednesday evening the teams will get together again for a return engagement.

Struthers - Wells Ball Team Prepares For Busy Season

BY BOB CHASE

Struthers again will be well represented in the baseball world. This year's team will be under the guidance of three old veterans, namely, Rabbit Swanson, Steve Massa and Myron Jewell.

"Rabbit is one of the town's leading sports enthusiasts. He is a superb instructor and a great on any diamond. Steve, a veteran of the Forge club, will be greatly missed by them this year and a stalwart back of the plate for the Struthers aggregation. Myron is a ball player from 'the old school' and knows all the tricks of the game. The rest of the team will be made up of younger players who have seen action on Russell Field before.

To relieve Massa they will have Marlett, a good catcher in any league, who will alternate with Massa. On the mound there will be Rose, Schussler, Kane and Main. Rose and Schussler will have the brunt of the load to carry.

The outfield will be made up of McLean, Reed, Billy Weidert and George Lucia. All three of these are young but have uncanny ability. Joe Massa may also be wearing the Struthers colors. Tom Juliano, Bob Lundquist, Gerald Vesling and Jiggs Bonavita will take care of the infield. The Cardinals have an option on Vesling and he will report to Allentown June 15. Lundquist is at Notre Dame but will be ready for action June 12.

With a ball club of this calibre the Forge and the rest of the teams in this vicinity will have their hands full trying to be on the long end of the score at the end of the game.

There will be a practice Thursday at 6 p. m. and Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m. at the State Hospital grounds.

Good Hitting Helps Pitchers In Winning Games Tuesday

By JACK HAND

You don't have to be a good hitter to be a winning pitcher in the big leagues but Rookie Charley Schantz of the Phillies today knows it helps.

Schantz was only one of five major league hurlers who helped his own cause with a timely base knock in yesterday's games that tightened up the races in both circuits.

RED RYDER BY FRED HARTMAN

Roy Johnson Acting Pilot For the Cubs

Chicago, May 3.—(P)—"Hard Rock" Johnson, temporary successor to Jimmy Wilson as manager of the Chicago Cubs, today told Cub players that "action and hustle" would be keystones of his scheme.

Johnson, a veteran minor league pilot since 1928, used a brief but lively dressing room session to burn the ears of the Wrigley chatters with general remarks, then singled out a few individuals for more pointed comment.

"I want action!" Johnson thundered. "I want every ball player to get out and hustle like he's supposed to. I don't know how long I'll be manager, but as long as I'm boss there'll be no favoritism!"

Emphasizing his determination to prove his expressed belief that the eighth place Cubs are a better ball club than their nine-game losing streak has shown, Johnson said he wanted every man to get in shape.

"Any time a player is in better shape than the man in a position the player will be out there—no matter who he is!"

ELK LEAGUE TITLE GAMES THIS EVENING

The championship of the Elk Bowling League will be decided this evening when Struthers No. 2 and Soda Mineral will meet in the final games of the roll-off. The Soda Drink boys will have to take four straight to cop the bunting, since the Ironworkers took all three games in the opener Monday evening. It is expected a large crowd will be on hand to see the finish of a most interesting season.

Title Series at Conewango "Even Steven"

The first four games in the Conewango League roll-off were bowled last evening between Trevenens, winners of the first half, and Culbertsons, winners of the second, with honors all even as they met again this evening to roll the best out of three for the championship. Culbertsons took the first and fourth. Judge Wade, of the Culbertsons, had high score of 211 in the first. Cap. Trevenen was high for his team with a 202 in the second. Brasington narrowly missed the honor roll with 199 in the first. A large crowd was on hand to can give a community both freedom and life. "Adults must lead the way with a pattern for youth to copy," he stated, "and the community will never have a recreational program of any value until the groups have done this." He mentioned facilities at hand and questioned the matter of proper supervision, urging that "when we talk about recreation, let's all talk the same language."

Ralph H. Wagner, representing the Boy and Girl Scouts, the YM and YW, presented facts and figures concerning present use of facilities of these agencies to answer the queries: "What are the present character building agencies doing and why not hand the problem over to them, lock, stock and barrel?" He pledged support of these groups in any project which may be worked out by the community and expressed their willingness to adjust their programs to meet any changes possible.

Olive Archibald Huff, chairman of the recreation committee, assumed charge of the panel, which was presented by young people representing the student body and youth organizations, together with Council, and Mrs. Stuart Perrin, Mrs. Walter Mathew, of the PTA Girl Reserve secretary, the YW. The young people heard in an explanation of the committee's findings were William Clinger, Giulio Dino, Dorothy Spinney, Robert and Duane Wilder, Ted Ryberg, Jack Cooney, Nick Geracimos, Ed Peterson, Juanita Farr and Sue McGarry. Also speaking briefly was Miss Green, a representative of the Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., pledging that firm's cooperation and support in supplying the needs of its personnel and the community welfare.

While the group proposed no actual project and asked for no commitments facts were brought out to show the need of a supervised recreational program here for young people and adults, a survey of what other towns and communities have accomplished and suggestions by the young people for a program of simple diversions that require little in the way of equipment or expense.

Some of these suggestions included early evening use of the playgrounds during summer months; outdoor dancing at the Beaty court; night volleyball and tennis; dramatics; archery and rifle range at Beaty Field; a crafts program; musical activities, to include listening room somewhere about town; and informal evening get-togethers for mixed groups.

Concluding the meeting, Mrs. Saylor expressed her appreciation to those who came, to school officials and to those who had cooperated in publicizing the meeting.

No Youth Recreation Problem Here

Just a sample of how the Warren Public Library is handling one phase of the youth education and recreation program for this community. The above picture, taken at a recent community story hour at the library, shows a portion of the students from grades two to six assembled in readiness for the semi-monthly story-telling period directed by Mrs. Gerald Archibald.

The day this picture was taken by the Stoke Studio, attendance rose to more than 400 children, with an average for the season of more than 300 at each story period.

There will be but two more story hours this spring, one on Thursday of this week and another on May 18. Among her three selections for this week Mrs. Archibald will relate "A Tale Told When the Hills Were Young". She has not announced her other choices.

The hour is four o'clock and all interested students are invited to be on hand.

Good Hitting Helps Pitchers Win Games

Phils drafted from San Diego is the shining example but Curt Davis of Brooklyn, Bill Dietrich of the White Sox, Johnny Niggeling of Washington and Hal Newhouser of Detroit have reasons to thank their own bats for adding something new to their win records.

Schantz might have lost a one-hitter if he hadn't been able to come up with a beses-loaded triple in the ninth to give the Phils a 5-2 verdict over the New York Giants.

Davis came on as a relief man with Brooklyn and Boston all tied up 6-6 in the 11th, blanked the Braves in the top half and then drove home Paul Waner with a single to break it up. Jim Tobin's no-hit streak was ended in the first inning and he gave way to a pinch hitter after allowing seven hits in three innings in Brooklyn's 7-6 victory.

In Cleveland, Dietrich tossed a five-hitter in trimming the Indians, 3-2, but he had to start his own White Sox rally with a single in the 10th. He moved around on LeRoy Schalk's single and romped home with the big run on Jimmy Webb's fly to center.

Newhouser chimed in with a double in Detroit's extra-base attack on St. Louis. Chuck Hostetter, Eddie Mayo, and Rudy York were the other sluggers in handling the Browns their first home loss, 4-3.

Niggeling's lone hit in backing up his own four-blow effort against Boston for a 5-2 victory did not help in the scoring but he prolonged a sixth inning rally by working Pinky Woods for a walk and helped another with a neat sacrifice in the eighth.

Hitting honors went to George Stirmweiss with his three bingles as the Yankees moved into undisputed possession of second place by downing the Athletics, 4-1, but Bill Zuber and Jim Turner combined to limit the Mackmen to five safeties. Outfielder Tuck

U. S. VICTORIES IN PACIFIC ARE MOUNTING

NAVAL FORCE S UNOPPOSED BY JAPANESE

American Warships Run
String of Enemy Destroyed

COASTAL SHIPS SUNK

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor
A mighty American naval force, roaming the south Pacific seas unchallenged by the Japanese navy, has run a string of air victories to 32 enemy planes destroyed in little more than a week by mashing Japan's stronghold
the Carolines, Truk atoll, with one of the heaviest blows
of the Pacific war.

An 800-ton blast by carrier-based planes wrecked Truk's defenses and destroyed 60 marked planes. Sixty-six more Japanese aircraft were shot down during the raids Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

On the preceding weekend, the same task force supported Sixth Army invasion forces at Hollandia,
New Guinea, and accounted for 106 Japanese planes.

Truk's satellite bases at Satan and Ponape in the eastern Carolines were bombed and bombs from battleships and cruisers added their heavyweights ex-osives to the assault.

Not a warship was damaged and losses were confined to 30
ers missing, the navy said.

In the southwest Pacific, Allied admirals issued a special statement claiming the sinking of 72 Japanese coastal vessels, barges, schooners and sailing craft and damaging 3,548 other small craft since April, 1942.

The statement commented that anti-barge campaign has had effect of "paralyzing enemy forces to supply, reinforce or evacuate the 17th and 18th (Japanese) armies cut off and surrounded in New Guinea, New Britain, New Ireland and the Solomons."

MacArthur's communique today told of the destruction of 20 enemy barges off the New Guinea
east, and of air raids on Rabaul,
New Britain, Woleai in the Caroline Islands, and the Schouten Islands in Dutch New Guinea.

On the Burma-India front, an Allied communique reported capture of Japanese positions north of Kohima, advance point of Japan's invasion of India, the Aland evacuation of a village on the rakan front of coastal Burma

the steady advance of Lt. Gen.

United Lauded for Exceptional Job in Turning Out Gasoline

The following self-explanatory commendatory message, signed by the secretary of war, under secretary of navy and petroleum adminis-

"United Refining Company:
"We wish to take the occasion of 100 Octane Week to thank you and every man in the Warren Refinery for the outstanding job you have been doing in turning out components for the manufacture of Hundred Octane Number Gasoline. Without your individual efforts and those workers in other refineries all over the country, our tremendous air offensives over Europe and in the Pacific could never have been carried out. We must urge on you, however, the vital necessity of still greater production.
"According to our information, your schedules call for output

To exceed this figure if humanly possible is a challenge which we know you and your employees will make every effort to meet.
Great as has been the output of this vital fuel already, our offensive

Open Meeting on Community Recreation Is Well Attended

Approximately 200 persons assembled in the high school auditorium last evening for the open Council and the panel discussion recreation committee.

Mrs. S. E. Saylor, council president, was in charge of the assembly, which opened with several selections played by the second band under the direction of Harry Summers. The young people played "Activity March," "Project March,"
"Amethyst Overture," two waltzes by Franz Lehár and "Mutual March."

Mrs. Saylor outlined the purpose of the meeting and investigation of local conditions which have preceded it. The principal speaker was Homer Flensing, director of physical education at Beatty building, whose topic was "What Is a Recreational Program?"

He pointed out that as a nation
we are recreational illiterates, with no real background or philosophy of recreation and with little study of its principles. He gave his own interpretation of "recreation" as
"the use of free time to satisfy the inherent desires of the individual for happiness" and stressed the belief that proper recreation million men under 26 now holding occupational draft deferments will be inducted this year, Representative

Selective Service should need
"few, if any, fathers over 26 this

Costello, chairman of a house

deferments, said 1,100,000 men under 26 are deferred because of employment on farms or in essential industry. In addition, he said, revised Selective Service figures show that on April 1 there were approximately 750,000 non-fathers in Class 1-A, available for induction.

ORDER MAKES MOST MEATS RATION FREE

Effective Tonight All Cuts
Excepting Beef Steaks and Roasts May Be Had Without Coupons

Washington, May 3—(AP)—
The Office of Price Administration today made all meats except beef steaks and beef roasts ration free, effective at midnight.

The removal of the ration points, announced by OPA Administrator Bowles at a surprise press conference, covers all cuts of pork, veal, lamb and mutton; all beef except the steaks and roasts; beef hamburger, beef steaks, all kinds of variety meats, sausage, ready-to-eat meats, canned meats and canned fish.

The action was taken, Bowles said, because lend-lease pork buying is halted for the time being;
also because of reduced army and navy demand, the crowding of storage space and the hope that the action will bring more meat to market this summer.

Because of the wide variety of meats now becoming available without the spending of Red ration points, OPA announced that housewives would have to make their red points last twice as long —stretching over a four week period instead of the present two week period.

In the past OPA has validated 30 red points every two weeks.
Starting next Sunday OPA will validate 30 points every four weeks. Red stamps R8,88 and T8 become valid Sunday for the purchase of butter, margarine, cheese and cheese products, evaporated milk, beef steaks and roasts—the only items now requiring red points—but no more red stamps will be validated until June 3, four weeks hence.

OPA officials indicated they were fairly certain the new status would endure for three or four months at least, but Bowles declined to prophesy beyond that time, stating that the cattle feed situation was the governing factor. A bad growing year, he indicated, would mean restoration of rationing next winter.

Point values for beef steaks (except flank, mode point free)
and roasts will remain the same, ranging from 7 to 13 points a pound.

The sudden action removee from rationing 57 per cent of the volume of products originally covered by red points. It removed 85 per cent of all meat.

WAGNER PLANNING TO CHALLENGE CITATION

Harrisburg, May 3—(AP)—A move was under way today to challenge in U. S. courts the authority of the U. S. Civil Service Commission to cite State Treasurer G. Harold Wagner and eight other officials and employees of the Democratic treasury department with violations of the anti-politics
Hatch law.

The citations, disclosed in Washington, accused Wagner, who won the Democratic nomination for auditor general a week ago, and the other officials of violating the federal law which prohibits use of official authority in political activity of federal or state agencies supported in whole or in part by federal funds.

Harrisburg, May 3—(AP)—A protest against what the Pennsylvania Council of Churches termed "unjust and unwise discrimination" against candidates for the protestant ministry went to Selective Service in Washington today.

The council adopted the protest in a resolution at the conclusion of its 15th annual state convention here yesterday and asserted it represented 24 protestant denominations with a membership of 2,200,000 in Pennsylvania.

Rigid Quarantine Of Dogs in Boro Ordered by Police

Reports were received last night from Harrisburg laboratory where the head of a dog shot by its owner, Malcolm O'Neil, 23 Glade avenue, some time ago was sent. The report stated that the reactions on the head showed that the dog definitely was suffering from rabies. Inasmuch as the animal is reputed to have bitten several other dogs in the vicinity where it ran wild, police are acting to check any outbreak of the disease in this city. Two other dogs, one owned by F. M. Kuhre, of Connecticut avenue, the other owned by Clarence Johnson, of Venture-town, were shot this week and the heads have also been sent away for determination as to whether or not they had rabies.

Chief of Police George Haehn has taken steps to check any outbreak and a strict quarantine has been placed on all dogs in the city.
Orders have been issued to all police officers to pick up all dogs found running at large. Under the order, every dog must be tied up and kept off the streets. If any dog is picked up on the streets and its owner does not have a certificate to show that the animal has been inoculated against rabies, the dog will be disposed of. This applies to licensed as well as unlicensed dogs.

Doctor Sperry Kinton is cooperating with the police in every way and is prepared to inoculate any and all dogs against the disease. He sent the head of the infected dog to Harrisburg where it was found that the head was so badly decomposed that a serum had to be made from the brain and injected into other animals to secure the reaction to show if the animal shot had been suffering from rabies.

The measures, described by Governor Martin as "a simple, direct and easily understood plan," are designed to carry the right to vote at the November election to 500-000 to 800,000 Pennsylvanians in the Armed Forces and auxiliary services scattered throughout the world.

House approval also was given to a proposed constitutional amendment to give the general assembly the right to fix terms of office of election boards. The amendment was sponsored by the Local Government Commission of the legislature which said it was drafted after the Dauphin county court held the constitution fixed the terms at one year instead of two years as now provided by the election code.

The proposed constitutional amendment along with appropriation measures to carry the soldier vote program into effect also went to the senate, which has confined its activities so far to consideration of Governor Martin's appointments made since the 1943 regular session of the assembly adjourned.
The senate yesterday confirmed
most of the appointments.

Mississippi River Slowly Receding

By the Associated Press
Flood waters of the swollen Mississippi river were receding today as far south as Cape Girardeau, Mo., but elsewhere in the mid-west and southwest the threat of high water was mounting.

In central and eastern Texas,
the toll had risen to eight dead, 35 injured and one missing following torrential rains, hail and heavy winds. The Neches river in east Texas was three miles wide in some places.

Government forecasters warned that serious flood conditions also existed along the Trinity, Brazos and Sabine rivers and numerous minor streams in Texas. Heavy livestock loss was expected.

In western Missouri the Osage river swirled out of its banks after further rains Monday night.
For 300 miles from the Kansas border to the river's confluence with the Missouri, the danger was serious.

Administration Forces Win Out In Florida and Alabama

By the Associated Press
Jacksonville, Fla., May 3—(AP)—Senator Claude Pepper, picking up strength after los-some ground, lengthened his lead over four opponents in late returns today from Florida's Democratic primary. The possibility increased that Pepper might win without a runoff.

By the Associated Press
Administration forces beat back their Democratic critics in Florida and Alabama senatorial primaries while Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York gathered in more convention support today for the Republican presidential nomination.

Senator Lister Hill, Democratic whip, was renominated in Alabama and Senator Claude Pepper ran up a substantial lead in his five-way contest for renoma-tion in Florida. Both men are administration stalwarts and both were opposed by vigorous critics of many of President Roosevelt's policies. In their part of the country nomination is as good as election.

Support of the president figured as a side issue in another senatorial primary, in South Dakota,
where Republican Senator Chan Gurney won renomination despite opposition claims that he had "adopted much of the new deal philosophy."

It was in South Dakota that Governor Dewey picked up 11 additional convention votes. A slate favoring the New Yorker defeated one supporting Lieut. Comdr. Harold E. Stassen by a margin of about 3 to 2.

This brings Dewey's total of pledged or claimed delegates to 239, with 530 needed to nominate at the Chicago convention.

AIR INVASION CRIPPLES AXIS RAIL CENTERS

No Longer Capable of Bearing Peak Load Necessary
For Germans To Repel
Coming Thrust

By GLADWIN HILL
London, May 3—(P)—Rail targets in western Europe have been bombed so effectively for the last two months that the lines in northern France and Belgium are no longer capable of bearing the peak load necessary for the Germans to repel invasion, a ministry of economic warfare spokesman said today.

American Liberators bombed the Pas de Calais area of France for the fourth consecutive day today, hammering Nazi installations blocking the shortest invasion route to the continent. The assault carried the mighty two-directional air offensive through the 19th consecutive day.

Italy-based planes struck heavily at Genoa and other harbors and at rail lines in northern and central Italy last night as Mosquitos from Britain sprayed the German chemical center of Leverkusen with two-ton bombs in a half hour attack.

The ministry spokesman said no freight yard between Cologne and the Bay of Biscay in a zone 100 miles deep was capable of forming trains, and that only military and coal traffic could be handled.

He said 14-year-old boys, women and one-armed former soldiers were being used by the Germans to run the trains.

The 400-mile-an-hour Mosquitos dropped many 4,000-pound block-busters on Leverkusen, which lies just north of Cologne and is the home of one of the largest chemical works in Europe, employing 20,000 workers.

The Acheres railway yards in France were hit by Mosquitos as British heavy bombers remained idle for the first time in seven nights.

Besides Genoa, second only to Marseilles as an important Mediterranean port, the southern arm of the Allied air force also struck at Piacenza, north Italian road junction, in an extension of the widespread assaults made yesterday.

While the swift Mosquitos visited Germany for the first time this month, Allied intruders swept over the continent as far as Munich and shot down five German planes.
Four of them were downed by one Canadian Mosquito crew, setting a record for this type of night operation.

An Air Ministry communique said mines also were strewn in enemy waters and that no Allied planes were missing.

Official announcements last night said American and British sky fleets based in Britain and Italy easily established a record during April by scattering a total of 80,460 tons of bombs on their chosen targets in Germany and occupied territories.

Airport Is Problem For Town Council

Grass growing on the runways of the airport is presenting a problem to the Town Council and the committee in charge is casting about for some method whereby the grass can be removed. The runways constructed of bituminous material is being damaged by the grass and weeds, and the State Aeronautics Commission inspector is insistent that the runways be put in better shape.

Chairman William Rice, of the Town Council Airport Committee has gone into the situation with Virgil King, of the Warren Air Service and reports to Council that the grass is not growing up through the surfacing on the runways but is growing downward from the top.

When removed the grass leaves little mounds on the surface of the runways that eventually will cause an uneven condition that will make their use dangerous. The State Commission is anxious that the runways be resurfaced and it has been ascertained that this would entail an expenditure of $3000.

City Engineer Barvis has suggested that the street sweeper with its steel brushes be run over the surface of the runways. It is thought this would remove the grass. Suggestion was made a weed killer be applied at a cost not to exceed $500. However this would be only temporary.

It is to be hoped that the use of the street sweeper will be found successful as the funds of the Council at present would not permit the resurfacing of the runways.

CIVIL COUNCIL

All representatives of service clubs are asked to attend the meeting of Warren Civil Council to be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday in the office of the president, H. M. Miller, West Penn Oil building on Liberty street.

OLD PIER REMOVED

The pier of the Glade bridge damaged some months ago by an ice gorge in the river is fast being replaced. The contractor in charge has removed the old pier and the weight of the bridge is being supported by steel beams that allowed the old pier to be entirely torn out. On Monday of this week the footer that will support the new pier was poured and forms are now being set for the pouring of the new concrete pier. When completed the new pier will be stronger than the old one or in fact any of the piers of the bridge. Good time is being made on the job by the contractor and there has been a minimum of interference with traffic.

LOONS ON RIVER

For the first time in a score or more of years sportsmen report that a pair of loons are spending some time on the river. The birds have been sighted this week on Hertzels Eddy and also at Gunderville. The big birds have attracted much attention and sportsmen are asked not to shoot them in hopes that they may make their home on the local stream and multiply. Several of the servers of the birds say that loons have not been seen here in 25 years and that at one time the birds were fairly common in this section. A flock of ducks has also been sighted this week on the river near the hospital and they have been viewed with much pleasure by observers.

He writes that he is now back in the Hawaiian Islands and is permitted to say that he is with the 27th Division on the Island of Oahu.

Ford Plant At Windsor Tied Up By Strike

Windsor, Ont., May 3.—(P)—The giant plants of the Ford Motor Company of Canada were idle again today following a mass meeting at which members of the United Automobile Workers Union (CIO) voted last night to halt work until satisfactory settlement is reached on a dispute over grievance procedure.

The new shutdown came only three days after work had been resumed following a 10-day stoppage which resulted from a similar dispute.

Picket lines were established at the gates of the sprawling factories.

The work stoppage which began April 20 apparently had been settled last week-end on the basis of terms drawn up by the National War Labor Relations Board in conferences with union and company representatives at Ottawa.

Union officials, however, expressed dissatisfaction with the board's recommendations for grievance procedure, and the mass meeting was called.

It Happened In WARREN--48 YEARS AGO

This is the FIRST of a series of pictures of Warren 48 years ago—in 1896—when life was more leisurely, entertainment more naive, and names-in-the-news recall the happy times of an earlier generation. The following are quoted from the Warren Evening Mirror, 1896:

VIRGIL LESSER, AGE 5, FLOWER BOY.

A very pretty rose wedding took place at the home of E. J. Woodruff, "father of the bride," Wednesday evening, East Side. The contracting parties were Miss Mary L. Woodruff and O. D. Stone, both of this place. Promptly at 9 o'clock the bridal party marched down the stairs, where Rev. T. R. Thoburn performed the solemn and impressive ceremony with the wedding ring under an arch of roses. The Misses Ethel Offerle and Jennie Burkett acted as Maids of Honor. Little Noyes McWilliams and Virgil Lesser, aged 5 years, cousins of the bride, carried baskets of roses.

Need of Coordinated Effort Seen In AAF Press Report

Principal figure in a delayed news release received from the field censor with the 15th Army Air Force in Italy is Capt. George "Sherry" Miller, of Warren, back in this country with more than 50 bombing missions to his credit and now attending instructors' school at Galveston, Texas.

The press dispatch, pointing out that modern warfare calls for more than just one man knowing

how to do a thing, that it calls for teamwork and coordination of everyone involved, contains a fine tribute for the Warren officer and the men who were most closely associated with him while he was a member of an AAF B-17 group in Italy. It reads:

Such a team was Capt. James A. Clark, of Winchester, Ky., a staff officer; Capt. George S. Miller, 7 Franklin street, Warren, pilot and squadron leader; Capt. Philip M. Glassman, La Porte, Ind., squadron engineering officer; and Capt. Lyman E. Ihle, Cambridge, Mass., squadron flight surgeon.

It all started in Algeria, in June, 1943, shortly after they arrived overseas, where they shared the same tent. This marked the beginning of the "team."

Soon the three ground officers began to center their attention around Capt. Miller, not only because he was a combat pilot and needed all the help the ground officers could give him, but because of his admirable spirit and eagerness to fly regardless of the type of mission to be flown.

Capt. Clark remarked, "George is the kind of guy that can get up at 4:30 in the morning knowing he had a long, hard mission to fly that day. He would adjust his tie and silk scarf and say 'well I got this wheel and deal today' and leave his plane. Then upon his return from skies dark with flak and enemy fighters, sit down and tell you about the mission in a cool calm voice."

Capt. Clark once flew with Capt. Miller on a mission over Viterbo, Italy.

Capt. Glassman flew with Capt. Miller on many "test hops," after the squadron mechanics had worked on the plane to make double sure that every thing was in shape. He also kept him posted on the latest developments in the engineering line.

Besides keeping him in good physical condition, Capt. "Doc" Ihle also flew with him to check his reactions while flying at high altitude using oxygen. His associates informed him of the most modern developments along the research line of combat flying.

Sheffield High Seniors Will Present Play

Sheffield, May 2.—Friday evening, May 5th, will be Senior Night at the high school auditorium. Several musical numbers will be given, and a play "Twelve Hours by the Clock," a comedy in two acts by Lindsey Barbee, will be staged by eight girls, Dorothy Abramson, Annabelle Snyder, Jeanne McDowell, Betty Irwin, Marilyn Jones, Barbara Sowle, Alice Jeffords and Eleanor Deliman.

The action takes place in the living room in Woodlawn Cottage, on the estate of Beverly Gilbert, an actress. During an unexpected visit at the cottage, Beatrice Gilbert, sister of the actress, reveals the fact that Beverly has disappeared suddenly. Into the atmosphere of study comes Carol, a gay young cousin of Estelle; Ardis, a strange young woman who, caught in the storm, forgets her own identity, her own name; and Arabella, a country girl who refuses to leave the trio. The advent of a dashing young man in a gray and scarlet car adds mystery; the kidnapping of an heiress makes the girls wonder if their nameless stranger can be the lost Doris. The lively Carol clopes with the dashing young man to the accompaniment of motor horns, pistol shots and a visit to the police station. And then, as a climax, Arabelle proves to be Beverly Gilbert, undiscovered by anyone, has played the role of a country girl and has proved that she is clever enough to submerge her own personality in that of another person. All of which happens in the period from noon to midnight—twelve hours by the clock.

Mrs. L. O. Eisenhauer and Miss Betty Loomis are coaching the play.

The Progressive Woman's Club met Monday evening, April 24th, at the Red Cross rooms, with twenty-two members present. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Miss Richwalsky. The following officers were re-elected: President, Miss Mary Richwalsky; first vice president, Mrs. Emil Stanat; second vice president, Mrs. Richard Moore; secretary, Mrs. Milton Danielson; treasurer, Miss Gertrude Calkins. The club will entertain their mothers and guests at a 6:30 dinner in the dining room of the Bethany Lutheran church, May 8th. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Richard Moore, on or before May 3rd.

Miss Gartrude Calkins spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Plank, Colon, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Priset and daughter, Mrs. Naomi Johnson, spent the weekend with the Ebert Lundin family at Bradford.

The Junior class sponsored a dance last Friday evening in the high school gymnasium, and the music was furnished by the Melody Busters.

Mrs. William Paul and daughter, Mrs. Herbert Fitch, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCaskey, and returned to Endicott, N. Y., Sunday evening.

Miss Reba Mercillott and Miss Hamilton of Erie were Sunday guests at the home of O. M. Beer.

Pvt. Robert Gustafson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gustafson, is now stationed at Camp Meade.

Pvt. Archie Harris, stationed at Camp Wheeler, Ga., is spending a ten-day furlough, with his wife and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruland Russ have received word that their son, Sgt. Wayne Russ, is now in New Guinea.

Pvt. Paul Johnson is now stationed at Camp Meade, according to word received by Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Ruth Howarth attended the American Legion Auxiliary Inter-County Council meeting in Bradford Saturday.

ONE LONELY DRUNK

One drunk who violated all rules by getting intoxicated on Tuesday instead of Saturday night was gathered in by the police. He was holding forth on Pennsylvania avenue, east and was given a ride to the station in the police car. This little incident and the hushing of a barking dog provided the excitement outside of knob trying and money escorting.

RED CROSS NEEDS HELP

Eighteen thousand surgical dressings sounds like a lot—but when twenty-seven thousand is added to it, the total is something to boast about. If the Warren County Chapter of the American Red Cross can reach the goal of those figures combined they will have attained the quota planned for the month of May.

It is believed that the women of Warren will be on hand to do the job in spite of the flurry of spring housecleaning that is prevalent these days. It would be a feather in the cap of the local chapter if the huge task could be completed by the end of the month. The War Department is counting on you.

Of special interest to civilian war workers is the fact that the surgical dressings program is conducted, controlled and administered by the War Department, but the bulk of the production is executed by Red Cross volunteers; in short the success of each month's program depends on you.

It appears that everyone must do one more thing. Each must add to her desire to help, a determination to work cheerfully on whatever job the country has for her, and at whatever time not losing the perspective for the program as a whole.

The need for surgical dressings is greater than ever. Enroll now to assist in reaching the May quota of 18,000 plus 27,000 additional dressings required by the present emergency.

YMCA ANNIVERSARY SYMPHONY

The nature of the symphonic work which Morton Gould is composing as a tribute to youth of the World for the 100th Anniversary observance of the Young Men's Christian Association is announced in a statement by the brilliant young American composer released from National headquarters of the Y. M. C. A.

It is a "Symphony of Marching Tunes", which he describes as "exploring in symphonic form one aspect of the American idiom that has been used to a very limited extent so far."

Sketches for the symphony have been completed and arrangements are being made for its world premiere in June, when ten thousand Y. M. C. A.'s in 68 countries will be participating in their centennial celebration.

"When I was commissioned last year to write a work for the Y. M. C. A. Centennial," Mr. Gould explained, "I felt it would be consistent with the idea to do something that was related to youth. The vigor and vitality that are inherent in good marches and marching songs is something that is applicable to the idea of young people and young spirits marching forward to a better future."

Sub-committees of Warren's Y. M. C. A. Centennial Committee have been at work making plans for local observance of the anniversary. The actual birthday, (June 6th) to be known as "Second Century Day," will be celebrated here with an anniversary banquet in the Association building; while, with the cooperation of the Ministers Association, plans have been made for "Y. M. C. A. Day in the Churches" on June 4. Further details about these and other Centennial events will be announced in the coming weeks.

RABIES SITUATION SERIOUS

Disclosure that heads of dogs sent to a Harrisburg laboratory for examination revealed positive reaction to rabies creates a situation that is most menacing to the community and demands complete cooperation of every canine owner in Warren.

Both animals were killed in Warren and it is not known how many others may have been bitten. A strict quarantine has been placed on all dogs with orders issued to police to pick up any found running at large. Any animals found whose owners can not prove they have been inoculated against rabies will be disposed of, and this applies to licensed as well as unlicensed canines.

Warren is facing an epidemic of rabies. There are reports of citizens having been bitten. Any who have should consult a physician for the Pasteur treatment, which is available at the Warren General Hospital.

The ban is ironclad. If you value your pet do not permit it to run at large.

How's the housecleaning coming along?

Washington in Wartime

(This is the first of two articles on Ralph K. Davies, who as deputy vice president of the war holds one of the most important jobs in Washington.)

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Sometimes the men who really run wartime America cop the headlines. More often they don't. One who never has is Ralph K. Davies, deputy petroleum administrator for war.

He was appointed three years ago (June 9, 1941) by that frost-bitten old "curmudgeon," Harold L. Ickes, to see to it that our oil, gasoline and petroleum by-products were distributed so that they would do the most good in our war efforts.

Since then, Ickes has received praise from friends and foes alike for his handling of the petroleum situation. The reason is simple: that the gruff old owl has had complete confidence in and backed almost every major decision of Davies.

LIKE nature in the case of a vacuum, Davies abhors personal publicity. When he came to Washington there was hardly a line printed that he had resigned a highly lucrative position as senior vice president of the powerful Standard Oil Co. of California, to become just another salaried government toiler in the defense vineyard. His biographical sketch, issued by petroleum administration publicists, was as dry as dust, merely recounting his business background.

It was Davies' job to see first that every Army, Navy and Merchant Marine demand for fuel was met, that no one using oil for heating in the nation suffered critically for lack of heat, and that this nation on wheels didn't stop rolling to the detriment of the war effort. He had to fight through the long dark months when our tankers were being knocked off in the Atlantic like ducks in a shooting gallery. He had to make the railroads do what they declared was impossible in supplying tank car shipments to the east. He courted the wrath of selfish motorists in curtailing gasoline supplies.

On the other hand, he had to steer between the selfish interests of major oil companies and constant veils from the little fellows—the independents. He has had to find new petroleum reserves, okay the construction of pipelines, and more recently determine our war policy in such bitterly controversial matters as the proposed Saudi-Arabian pipeline. The price of crude (which many wish to see advanced from $1.18 to somewhere around $1.50 to $1.60 a barrel as an effort to stimulate new development and to salvage unprofitable wells) is just another Davies worry.

YET after three years, the major portion of industry, the military, and even the public is saying "well done" to Ickes and his PAW. The Army and Navy have never wanted for fuel, within the limits of transoceanic shipping capacity (which is not Davies' job). There have been no reports of any one freezing to death and the nation's 20-odd million passenger cars and fleets of buses and freight trucks have been kept moving on essential travels.

Behind it all is Ralph K. Davies, who hasn't had a front-page headline since he came to Washington. (Tomorrow: Davies—The Man.)

Hollywood Gossip

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Charles Bickford, the red-headed tough guy of many films, went along minding his own business for many years but now he's in trouble—other people's trouble.

Because the former tough guy changed type and played the Dean of Lourdes in "The Song of Bernadette," his fan mail also has changed in type. He used to get letters from young girls collecting actor photographs, routine fan letters.

Now they're coming from men and women of all ages—and they're asking advice. The strong, holy man of the movie has transferred to the actor his understanding and wisdom—at least in the fan mind—and Bickford now must play the new role of off-screen counsellor, father, friend.

"I'm doing my best," he says, "to give helpful answers. Makes me feel a responsibility—since they ask questions on spiritual, financial, love, sex and many other intimate matters."

That one role, Bickford's best performance, has affected his professional life also. A year ago he'd have been the last man in town selected to read an Easter message at a Salvation Army service. He has been dickered on a radio deal, and one of the themes suggested was Bible readings! This seems incongruous only because of his screen past for Bickford is not without religion.

"My religion? I'm strictly a Golden Rule guy," he says.

To play in "Bernadette" cost Bickford, long noted as a Hollywood rebel, his resolve never again to sign a term contract.

"I had read the book," he explains, "and at the time I thought what a character that Dean would be to play. But I knew nobody would think of me for it. Later I learned that the author, Franz Werfel, had suggested me, and also that the Catholic church representatives saw me in it because of a little picture I had once done. But when Henry King called me in, I didn't know why. We sat around and talked for two hours—about everything under the sun—before he mentioned 'Bernadette' and the Dean. He asked if I could see myself in the role, and I said, 'Yes, but I don't believe there's a producer or director in town with enough intelligence to see me in it.' King said, 'You're talking to one now' and I said, 'Bring on the contract.'"

As for the "daring" involved in casting a tough guy as the Dean, Bickford has this slant: "You know, I never believed myself in those tough roles on the screen."

Henry Hathaway, his current director on "Queechy of the Flat-Tops," agrees with him. "Charlie," he said, "I never believed you either. You were a phony as a toughie. You were acting. But your acting never got over, at least to me."

"THANKS for giving the boys a break"

You do someone a real favor when you stay off Long Distance lines from 7 to 10 at night. When a lot of people do that, a lot of service men's calls get through quicker.

The soldiers and sailors—their folks back home—and the telephone company are all grateful for your help.

So tonight and every night "give seven to ten to the service men." That's about the best time they have to call.

The West Ridge Greyhound Line will have a co-director on the Greyhound Corp. board of directors which will operate the line.

Negotiations have been under way for several months by the Greyhound Corp for the purchase of the West Ridge Transportation Company which came into existence shortly after the Buffalo and Erie Traction trolley service was abolished more than 15 years ago.

Women Must Respond To Call For Help

Every woman who is not now engaged in essential war work is urged to ask herself this question, "Where will I be on invasion day when our men are dying by the hundreds, and thousands are being wounded?" There is only one answer to be made to that question for every true hearted American woman and the answer is "I am in a war plant working my hardest, to give aid and support to the men in the front lines."

REPORT ISSUED

The OPA weekly fuel index, released May 1 by the Erie District office, shows that as of that date consumers in this locality should not have burned more than 93 per cent of their total yearly fuel allotment. Plans are now being completed to have local war prices and rationing boards to begin sending out early in June the renewal applications for next season's rations. If these are sent back to boards promptly by consumers, the panels will start issuing actual coupon sheets in July, enabling oil users to fill up their tanks during the summer and early fall months when transportation facilities are more available.

Pittsfield Cubs Enjoy First Pack Meeting

"A Cub Radio Show" was the theme of the first Pack meeting of the newly organized Pack sponsored by a group of citizens at Pittsfield. The meeting was held at the United Brethren Church on Friday evening, April 28.

Troop 9 of the First Methodist church will conduct a waste paper pickup on the South Side on Saturday of this week and asks the cooperation of residents in having their papers and magazines at the curb, properly bundled and tied, by one o'clock in the afternoon. CARPENTERS ARE NEEDED

Work on the new addition to the plant of the Sylvania Electric Products Inc., is being slowed down by the inability to secure carpenters for the job. The construction firm is working nine hours per day and paying $1.25 per hour. There is immediate need for ten men and more could be used. Men engaged in non essential work can be used at once.

CEILING IS SET

The Erie OPA announces ceiling prices on fresh strawberries, effective May 2, are 31 cents for pints and 56 cents for quarts of shipped in berries. These prices, it is forecast, will be much lower as the berries become more plentiful and in instances where transportation and protective charges are saved through growth in nearby states. Locally grown berries, R. G. Cramer announces, will be about the same as last year.

NO CERTIFICATE NEEDED

Earl J. Donor, district manager of the Office of Defense Transportation, says: Certificates of War Necessity are not required for the operation of commercial motor vehicles by dealers or repair establishments in the course of their rebuilding or reconditioning, under an amendment issued today by the Office of Defense Transportation. The amendment exemption order 21-22A, Amendment 1, effective immediately, also applies to such vehicles when being operated to, from or between rebuilding plants. Arrangements have been made with the Office of Price Administration for the issuance of special gasoline ration stamps for this purpose. ODT officials said. Such rationing will be limited to 200 miles of travel, however, unless the ODT certifies that adequate rail or water facilities are not available to transport the vehicle the necessary distance.

Women Must Respond To Call For Help

Never was there such an opportunity for women to lend their strength and skill in the aid of the men in armed forces. Never was there a time when women's work counted so much. Today Warren has need of over 250 women in its plants and the response is not what it should be. There should be an outpouring of women from every town in the county into Warren plants and the office of the Manpower Commission should be besieged with applicants for places.

Reports are current that girls and women are loath to get into industry as they might get dirty hands and would not wear the clothing they would wear in an office. That idea should be tossed out the window as the men—brothers, husbands, sweethearts—in the dirty, foul slit trenches are not immaculate and the stay-at-homes could stand a little dirt and grime.

Manager David Levine is preparing to enroll women in every town in the county during the next few days and women in the outlying districts should be prepared to enroll when the call comes. The time and place for enrollment will be announced soon. The Sylvania Company is arranging for transportation if sufficient numbers of girls and women enroll to make their transportation feasible.

Why not call at 225 Pennsylvania avenue today and secure an application card for an essential job?

(By Joe Gardner)

From Sgt. Robert E. Field
Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1944.

Dear Joe:

Your recent article regarding the hectic Conewango Cubs-Nine Terrors baseball feud of some years ago brought back some fond recollections.

In due justice to Steve Massa, if my memory serves me correctly, the Nine Terrors did win one game of the mythical junior championship you wrote about, the details of which are amusing, as were most of our games. This particular affair was played on a Sunday afternoon at the old Fair Grounds diamond as a preliminary to one of Bobby Burns' main events. The game was arranged to go seven innings and the starting time was set sufficiently ahead to allow completion of the game. The members of both teams appeared on the field at the appointed time (the Conewango Cubs' line-up was uncertain up to the last minute, due to some of the parents' opposition to playing on Sunday) and what looked as a red-hot game was ready to go. However, the manager of the Nine Terrors was unwilling to allow the first ball to be pitched until every eventuality had been taken care of. Arguments arose thick and fast. The most important concerned which team would bat first. This was really important, since either team might score an unlimited number of runs in any one inning, thus consuming so much time that the team in the field might not get its last turn at bat. The argument evolved about who had batted first in the last championship game (practically every game played was for the championship), and after many minutes of haggling, this was settled by tossing a coin. The Cubs won the toss the first time and then the Terrors' management trusted the toss should be two out of three. Again the Cubs won and the Terrors had to give in to this bit of fate, although some reference was made to a two-headed coin being used by the Cubs.

No less importance was attached to the choice of umpires. The Terrors were well prepared in this respect, having brought along their own. The Cubs had had considerable experience in similar situations, much to their sorrow, and in turn were unwilling to proceed under such conditions. The argument arose as to whose home game it was and once more complications set in. Many more minutes slipped by before this question was settled by selecting impartial arbiters. An umpire in any of these games not only had to withstand veritable crucifixion in case the Nine Terrors were on the adverse end of a close decision, but he probably would find himself castigated in print in the next issue of the Times-Mirror by the protesting Terrors' management.

These two vital questions agreed to, the problem of ground rules next arose. Even for kids, the Fair Grounds lay-out was perplexing. Before being brought to an amicable conclusion, many more minutes were wasted. Finally, with the starting time now considerably delayed, the game got under way, but since so much time had been lost in argument, only two or three innings were got in before it was necessary to end the activities so that the main event could get started.

As I recall, the Terrors were a run or two ahead when the game was called and, although it had not reached the regulation number of innings, the Terrors considered it a victory and tagged on a couple of scoreless innings to make it legal. The Cubs were quite peeved about the whole business, since they felt they had not reached their second wind in this particular game, and in the final tussle of the season, played at a later date, they revengefully managed the Terrors.

If all the circumstances as related above are not in line (my memory may be somewhat faulty in one or two minor respects), I'm sure Steve can set you straight!

Best regards,

BOB FIELD

Sgt. Robert E. Field,
Bolling Field, D. C.

P. S.—As one last fleeting memory, I can truthfully state as your article indicates, that during the long course of these feuds the Conewango Cubs never won one game from the Nine Terrors that was not protested by the opposition management. What a lawyer Steve would have made!

Struthers - Wells Ball Team Prepares For Busy Season

BY BOB CHASE

Struthers again will be well represented in the baseball world. This year's team will be under the guidance of three old veterans, namely, Rabbit Swanson, Steve Massa, and Myron Jewell.

"Rabbit is one of the town's leading sports enthusiasts. He is a superb instructor and a great on any diamond. Steve, a veteran of the Forge club, will be greatly missed by them this year and a stalwart back of the plate for the Struthers aggregation. Myron is a ball player from 'the old school' and knows all the tricks of the game. The rest of the team will be made up of younger players who have seen action on Russell Field before.

To relieve Massa they will have Marlett, a good catcher in any league, who will alternate with Massa. On the mound there will be Rose, Schussler, Kane and Main. Rose and Schussler will have the brunt of the load to carry.

The outfield will be made up of McLean, Reed, Billy Weidert and George Lucia. All three of these are young but have uncanny ability. Joe Massa may also be wearing the Struthers colors. Tom Juliano, Bob Lundquist, Gerald Vesling and Jiggs Bonavita will take care of the infield. The Cardinals have an option on Vesling and he will report to Allentown June 15. Lundquist is at Notre Dame but will be ready for action June 12.

With a ball club of this calibre the Forge and the rest of the teams in this vicinity will have their hands full trying to be on the long end of the score at the end of the game.

There will be a practice Thursday at 6 p. m. and Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m. at the State House.

RED RYDER

BY FRED HARTMAN

Roy Johnson Acting Pilot For the Cubs

Chicago, May 3—(AP)—"Hard Rock" Johnson, temporary successor to Jimmy Wilson as manager of the Chicago Cubs, today told Cub players that "action and hustle" would be keywords of his regime.

Johnson, a veteran minor league pilot since 1928, used a brief but lively dressing room session to burn the ears of the Wrigley chatters with general remarks, then singled out a few individuals for more pointed comment.

"I want action!" Johnson thundered. "I want every ball player to get out and hustle like he's supposed to. I don't know how long I'll be manager, but as long as I'm boss there'll be no favoritism!" Emphasizing his determination to prove his expressed belief that the eighth place Cubs are a better ball club than their nine-game losing streak has shown, Johnson said he wanted every man to get in shape.

Culbertsons took the first and fourth. Judge Wade of the Culbertsons, had high score of 211 in the first. Cap. Trevenen was high for his team with a 202 in the second. Open Meeting On Community Recreation Well Attended

Ralph H. Wagner, representing the Boy and Girl Scouts, the Y and YW, presented facts and figures concerning present use of facilities of these agencies to answer the queries: What are the present character building agencies doing and why not hand the problem over to them, lock, stock and barrel? He pledged support of these groups in any project which may be worked out by the community and expressed their willingness to adjust their programs to meet any changes possible.

Olive Archibald Huff, chairman of the recreation committee, assumed charge of the panel, which was presented by young people representing the student body and youth organizations, together with Council, and Mrs. Stuart Perrin, Mrs. Walter Mathyer, of the PTA Girl Reserve secretary of the YW.

The young people heard in an explanation of the committee's findings were William Clinger, Giulio Fno, Dorothy Shively, Robert and Duane Wilder, Ted Ryberg, Jack Cooney, Nick Geracimos, Ed Peterson, Juanita Farr and Sue McGarry. Also speaking briefly was Miss Green, a representative of the Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., pledging that firm's cooperation and support in supplying the needs of its personnel and the community welfare.

While the group proposed no actual project and asked for no commitments facts were brought out to show the need of a supervised recreational program for both young people and adults, a survey of what other towns and communities have accomplished and suggestions by the young people for a program of simple diversions that require little in the way of equipment or expense.

Some of these suggestions included early evening use of the playgrounds during summer months; outdoor dancing at the Beaty court; night volleyball and tennis; dramatics; archery and rifle range at Beaty Field; a crafts program; musical activities, to include listening room somewhere about town; and informal evening get-togethers for mixed groups.

Concluding the meeting, Mrs. Saylor expressed her appreciation to those who came, to school officials and to those who had cooperated in publicizing the meeting.

House Passes Soldier Vote Unanimously
house on its speedy passage of the soldier vote program.

Rep. Reuben E. Cohen, Democratic house leader, echoed Lichtenwalter's statement but asserted he was sorry "that the soldiers of the other states are not able to have some of the facilities for voting as those from Pennsylvania do."

DETAIL FOR TODAY Hash Marks

HASH MARKS are stripes worn on the lower sleeve to denote years of service in the Army. One "hash" or three-year period of enlistment, entitles a soldier to one HASH MARK. You may wonder, when you see a soldier with a number of HASH MARKS on his sleeve, how he has stood it so long. Often he wonders, too. It is rare to see a master sergeant without at least one HASH MARK. Many of the men who were in the first draft, and expected to be "back in a year," will soon be wearing HASH MARKS, which may be some consolation.

Four Warren county boys were among the Army Air Forces' first graduating class of civilian pilot instructors to receive their wings at Blytheville, Ark., on April 24. They were Vincent A. Knudgard, Kenneth L. Porter, Lewis E. Shanley and Lester M. Sheldon.

Mrs. Ella H. Porter attended the graduating exercises of her son, Kenneth, and spent a few days with him in Memphis before going to visit another son, Lt. Lloyd L. Porter, at Greenville, S. C.

Both Porter and Knudgard got their early training with Virgil "Slip" King at the local airport. The latter, a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Knudgard, of Pleasant township, was an instructor at Lakeland, Fla., for one and one-half years.

The class of graduates, whose ages ranged from 24 to 37 years, represented 24 states and have been assigned to the Ferrying Group, Army Transport Command, at Memphis.

Friends and relatives gathered in the community building Saturday evening honoring E. Burnel Holmes who left for service in the army. There were about eighty well wishers in attendance. Burnel's wife was formerly Blanch Eastman and they have two small daughters.

Mrs. William Chapman and her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Coon, have returned from the Warren hospital where they were surgical patients. They are convalescing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bills.

Garland friends of Dr. Prout who has been serving the Garland Presbyterian church, regret to learn of his serious illness. All sincerely hope he may soon recover and again very soon be able to take up his useful work.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church were entertained by Mrs. Rogers on Wednesday afternoon.

Gordon and Milton Munn, former Garland boys, who have enjoyed fishing for many years in our streams were in the vicinity for the first day of the trout season.

The Ransom property which was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Brown has been resold to Norton Eastman. The Ransons now residing in Springcreek, were in the village recently on business.

Mr. Whitcomb has secured employment in Corry and he and his wife will soon leave for Spring Creek where they will reside.

Roy Richards was a recent Tidoute visitor, called by the death of a friend.

Frederick Carlson of Bradford visited his cousin Norman Taylor on Sunday. His mother who fell some time ago on

No Youth Recreation Problem Here

Just a sample of how the Warren Public Library is handling one phase of the youth education and recreation program for this community. The above picture, taken at a recent community story hour at the library, shows a portion of the students from grades two to six assembled in readiness for the semi-monthly story-telling period directed by Mrs. Gerald Archibald.

The day this picture was taken by the Stoke Studio, attendance rose to more than 400 children, with an average for the season of more than 300 at each story period.

There will be but two more story hours this spring, one on Thursday of this week and another on May 18. Among her three selections for this week Mrs. Archibald will relate "A Tale Told When the Hills Were Young". She has not announced her other choices.

The hour is four o'clock and all interested students are invited to be on hand.

Philis drafted from San Diego is the shining example but Curt Davis of Brooklyn, Bill Dietrich of the White Sox, Johnny Niggeling of Washington and Hal Newhouse of Detroit have reasons to thank their own bats for adding something new to their win records.

Schantz might have lost a one-hitter if he hadn't been able to come up with a bases-loaded triple in the ninth to give the Philis a 5-2 verdict over the New York Giants.

Davis came on as a relief man with Brooklyn and Boston all tied up 6-6 in the 11th, blanked the Braves in the top half and then drove home Paul Waner with a single to break it up. Jim Tobin's no-hit streak was ended in the first inning and he gave way to a pinch hitter after allowing seven hits in three innings in Brooklyn's 7-6 victory.

In Cleveland, Dietrich tossed a five-hitter in trimming the Indians, 3-2, but he had to start his own White Sox rally with a single in the 10th. He moved around on LeRoy Schalk's single and romped home with the big run on Jimmy Webb's fly to center.

Newhouse chimed in with a double in Detroit's extra-base attack on St. Louis. Chuck Hottel, Eddie Mayo, and Rudy York were the other sluggers in handling the Browns their first home loss, 4-3.

Niggeling's lone hit in backing up his own four-blow effort against Boston for a 5-2 victory did not help in the scoring but he prolonged a sixth inning rally by working Pinky Woods for a walk and helped another with a neat sacrifice in the eighth.

Hitting honors went to George Stinewiss with his three bingles as the Yankees moved into undisputed possession of second place by downing the Athletics, 4-1, but Bill Zuber and Jim Turner combined to limit the Mackmen to five safeties. Outfielder Tuck Stainback broke his right leg stealing second base in the third inning to force another reshuffling of the New York outfield.

In the only other big league game, Pittsburgh ended the Cardinals' four-game win streak with a 3-1 verdict for Preacher Roe who retired for a pinch hitter in the eighth, but got credit for his second victory. Chicago and Cincinnati were not scheduled.
